

ANTIPHON: A JOURNAL FOR LITURGICAL RENEWAL is published three times a year (April, August, and December) by The Society for Catholic Liturgy and serves both the members of the Society and the Catholic church in English-speaking countries.

Annual subscription (which begins each year with the April issue) is U.S. $12.00 and may be sent to the mailing address of the Society given below. For subscriptions from outside the U.S., the closest equivalent in non-U.S. currency is acceptable. (Cash should be sent by certified mail.) Volumes 1 (1996) and 2 (1997) are available for $10 each from the Society's mailing address. Single back issues are available for $5.

Essays, book reviews, and Forum contributions are welcome both from members of the Society and non-members. Prospective authors should first request the style sheet from the mailing address of the Society, as well as the General Philosophy statement of the Society, upon which editorial policies are based.

Publishers are invited to submit new books for review in ANTIPHON or for notation in the Books in Brief section of the journal.

The Society for Catholic Liturgy is a multidisciplinary association of Catholic scholars, teachers, pastors, and ecclesiastical professionals in the English-speaking world. Founded in 1995, the non-profit Society is committed to promoting the scholarly study and practical renewal of the church's liturgy. Its activities include an annual September membership conference, the publication of ANTIPHON, and cooperation with other projects and organizations committed to the ongoing renewal of the liturgy.

Membership of the Society is open to persons trained or professionally competent in the fields of liturgy and sacramental theology, as well as theologians, pastors, social scientists, biblical and patristic scholars, historians, architects, artists, musicians, and representatives of other disciplines whose Catholic faith and professional expertise qualify them to advance the aims of the Society.

Those wishing to gain membership of the Society should request the membership Application Form from the postal address of the Society.
